

Organizational Review

An “all – inclusive” review that helps you to know whether your Organization is on the pathway to greatness or needs a tune up.

- On site review of all departments
- Systems overview
- Technology overview
- Environmental overview
- Dementia and Specialized program overview/development
- Hard copy report and recommendations

Whether you are on the journey to accreditation or simply feel the need to have a third party help to identify your needs, the organizational review positions your Organization to re-focus; re-energize and move through barriers of change.
